Trinity Hall Chapel
Lent Term 2018
Welcome to the Chapel

The chapel exists for every member of Trinity Hall and is available for private prayer, or simply quietness and reflection, any hour of the day or evening outside service times.

Services are according to the rites of the Church of England, but all members of Trinity Hall and their guests are welcome to attend services. Anyone who receives communion in their own church, whether they are Anglican or not, is invited to receive communion in chapel. There is no dress code and it is not necessary to wear a gown.

The Revd. Roger Greeves is the Acting Dean. As well as charge of chapel, he has pastoral responsibility for the whole college (irrespective of belief). The Dean is available at any time by appointment. You are welcome to raise any matter of personal concern with him in the strictest confidence - he provides a safe, non-judgmental environment in which specific issues can be aired.

His room is C3, his network phone is 332548, and his email is rdg20@cam.ac.uk

Chapel Notes

Director of Chapel and College Music: Andrew Arthur (aa373)
Senior Organ Scholar: James Grimwood (jag217)

Ordinand on attachment: Janine Arnott (janine.arnott@me.com) (Ridley Hall & TH)

Sacristan: Arion Pons (adp53), Andrew Sackin-Poll
Chapel Council Secretary: Vacant

The Christian Union is an independent student group which consists of Christians in college who meet regularly to study the Bible, pray together and enjoy fellowship with each other. Its members seek to explain the Christian faith to members of college.

A number of charities are supported each term by collections taken during chapel services. We support an international charity, a national charity, and a local charity each term. We are always willing to consider suggestions for suitable beneficiaries who are registered UK charities; please contact the chapel council secretary of the Dean if you wish to make a suggestion.

Baptism, Confirmation, Marriage:
If you are thinking about seeking one of these, please contact the Acting Dean.

The Director of Music welcomes enquiries at any point during the year from any member of College interested in joining the chapel choir.
