Trinity Hall Chapel

2018
Welcome to the Chapel

The chapel exists for every member of Trinity Hall and is available for private prayer, or simply quietness and reflection, any hour of the day or evening outside service times.

Services are according to the rites of the Church of England, but all members of Trinity Hall and their guests are welcome to attend services. Anyone who receives communion in their own church, whether they are Anglican or not, is invited to receive communion in chapel. There is no dress code and it is not necessary to wear a gown.

The Revd. Dr. Stephen Plant is the Dean. As well as charge of chapel, he has pastoral responsibility for the whole college (irrespective of belief). The Dean is available at any time by appointment and you are welcome to contact him at any time to raise any matter of concern in the strictest confidence.

Preachers this term:

Peter Williams has been Principal of Tyndale House, the Cambridge centre for biblical scholarship, since 2007. He taught previously at Aberdeen University.

George Newlands is a former Dean of Trinity Hall and regularly attends the Trinity Hall Chapel.

Steve Rothwell is half-time priest in charge of St James’ in Cambridge and Associate Tutor with the Easter Region Ministry Course, where he teaches modules on Ethics, Spirituality and Pastoral Care. He has worked as a vicar in Ely Diocese since ordination in 2002 serving in both rural and urban contexts. He loves literature and music, and having grown up in London, is still under the influence of post-punk culture.

Janine Arnott is a second year ordinand training for ministry in the Church of England at Ridley Hall and Trinity Hall and has been on attachment to the College Chapel since October, 2017.

David Clough is Professor of Theological Ethics at the University of Chester, has just finished a term as President of the Society for the Study of Christian Ethics, and is a Methodist lay preacher. He co-wrote Faith and Force: A Christian Debate about War (2007), debating just war and pacifism in a 21st century context, and has recently completed the landmark two-volume monograph On Animals (2012, 2018), on the place of animals in Christian theology and ethics.

Rob McDonald is Academic Dean and Tutor in Christian Doctrine at Ridley Hall, an Anglican theological college that prepares people for many different ministries in the wider church. Rob read theology at Cambridge while training for ordination, completing his PhD on Karl Barth’s pneumatology, a feat that has left him with an abiding interest in trinitarian theology in general and the Holy Spirit in particular.
Chapel Notes

Director of Chapel and College Music: Andrew Arthur (aa373)

Graduate Organ Scholar: James Grimwood (jag217)

The Christian Union is an independent student group that consists of Christians in college who meet regularly to study the Bible, pray together and enjoy fellowship with each other. Its members seek to explain the Christian faith to members of college.

A number of charities are supported each term by collections taken during chapel services. We support an international charity, a national charity, and a local charity each term. We are always willing to consider suggestions for suitable beneficiaries who are registered UK charities; please contact the chapel council secretary or the Dean if you wish to make a suggestion.

Baptism, Confirmation, Marriage:
If you are thinking about seeking one of these, please contact the Dean.

The Director of Music welcomes enquiries at any point during the year from any member of College interested in joining the chapel choir.
