

FEES AND COSTS FOR UNDERGRADUATES – 2021 ENTRY

University Composition Fee

Your offer letter should have stated whether you are a 'Home' or 'Overseas' student for fee purposes.

Home Fees

All courses £9,250 for the academic year 2021-22*

*The government regulated tuition fee for 2022-23 hasn't been set. It may be different from the tuition fee for 2021.

This figure will remain the same for each year of your course, provided you do not intermit for more than six consecutive terms.

College Fee

Home students who are studying for their first undergraduate degree and are eligible for public funding do not have to pay the College Fee.

All other students (including Overseas and Affiliated students, and any other students who are not eligible for public funding) are required to pay the College Fee as follows:

All courses £9,900

This figure will remain the same for each year of your course, provided you do not intermit for more than six consecutive terms.

Maintenance Costs

All students will require a reasonable amount of maintenance money to pay for rent, food and other various living costs. This amount will be higher for students travelling to Cambridge from overseas. Living expenses will obviously vary from individual to individual but the following figures are considered to be a good estimate:

Home undergraduates	£9,890
Overseas undergraduates	£11,480

These figures include certain college charges such as room rent (first-year undergraduate accommodation will range between £102.90 and £200.40 per week in 2021-22, depending on the size and location of the room). Rents are subject to increase each year.

Further Notes
